

Public Funding Manager

Responsible of the public funding of a start-up company, the candidate will have the chance to join a highly motivating project within a skilled team, where to develop her/his career as the company evolve herself. We offer a full-time job in a materials science company, office based in Santiago de Compostela.

Main Responsibilities:

- Public Funding Management of Innovation Projects: European, National, and Regional Funding.
- Identification of funding calls & Analysis of most suitable funding calls for the project.
- Planning, writing and submission of proposals.
- Call and Proposal Follow-up. Management of modifications and justification. Management of documentation and info related with proposals.

Candidate Profile:

- University Degree in Science or Economy.
- Proven experience in public funding management.
- Thorough understanding of public funding scenario.
- Excellent organizational skills.
- High level of English both written and spoken (C1 in Common European Framework of Reference for Languages).

Resumes & Contact Info:

info@hgbeyond.com